

HOMESCHOOLER EXPERIENCE

WITH

Colonial Williamsburg[®]

September 12–27, 2009

Events of the 1770s pushed Williamsburg and its residents into Revolution and independence. Yet, while politics raged, ordinary citizens continued with their lives, work, commerce, and entertainment.

Learn about the political climate in the years surrounding the American Revolution and how the decisions of each individual affected our nation's story. Take part in Revolutionary City[®] and experience the 18th century through the dramatic stories of the people who lived during this tumultuous time.

Explore the shops the Blacksmith, Cabinetmaker, Silversmith, Milliner, Tailor, and other artisans to find out how you would have learned a trade and what kind of work you might have done once you finished your apprenticeship.
