

Colonial Williamsburg®

The Electronic Field Trip Series 2011 – 2012

A unique distance learning content experience that blends media and downloadable print (PDF) resources for your classroom!

*Federal Funding Eligible: Title I (Part A), Title II (Part D), Title III, IDEA, Title IV (Part B), Improving Literacy

Interactive Broadcast	Video Streaming	Student Connections	Standards-Based	Build Student Skills	Teacher Support
Live television	On-Demand 24/7/365	Call in questions: telephone & video chat	National	Citizenship & civil discourse	Teacher guide
National	Live online broadcasts	Email historians & interpreters	State	Historical analysis	Teacher & student bibliography
PBS stations	Windows Media Player	Collaborative message boards	Historically accurate content	Literacy	Primary sources
Cable channels	QuickTime	Video questions	Multidisciplinary	Communication	Program scripts
Educational channels	Flash	Internet resources & Online activities	Differentiated	Background knowledge	Literacy materials
10-11 a.m. ET	Technical support	Digital Game-based learning	Multimodal	Gather/synthesize information	Recording rights
1-2 p.m. ET	Scalable streams	Multisensory	ELA/History/Civics/ 21 st Century	Chronological thinking	Technical assistance
Recording rights	Test streams available	Distance learning	Assessments	Primary source analysis	Tutorial/checklists

1.800.761.8331 EFTSupport@cwf.org visit www.history.org/trips

The Electronic Field Trip Series

PRODUCED BY

Colonial Williamsburg®

What are Electronic Field Trips?

- Live national television broadcasts that BRING AMERICAN HISTORY ALIVE in your classroom
- Relevant stories of people, places, and events from the past that motivate today's learners
- Broadcasts air at 10–11 AM and 1–2 PM Eastern Time
- Video streaming available
- Broadcast on participating PBS stations and cable channels. For a broadcaster list, go to www.history.org/broadcasters
- Live toll-free call-in, e-mail, and video questions answered by Colonial Williamsburg historians
- Online voting, video previews, and year-long student message boards

What does the price include?

- On-demand 24/7, to use when they fit your curriculum
- Interactive, multidisciplinary student lessons
- Web-based, standards-aligned teacher resources
- Primary sources
- Script for each program
- Online teacher tutorial
- Technical assistance
- Video streaming available
- Taping rights

Why should I subscribe?

- Immerse students in authentic historical content
- Build civics, history, and literacy skills
- Infuse distance learning into the differentiated classroom
- Fill information gaps and enhance background knowledge
- Help students develop communication skills
- Enhance students' ability to gather and synthesize information from a variety of sources

To learn more, visit our Web site at www.history.org/trips, e-mail to EFTSupport@cwf.org,
Call 1-800-761-8331 to subscribe.